Dear Friends,

The ESHO board highly recommends your participation to the 11th International Congress of Hyperthermic Oncology and the 29th Japanese Congress of Thermal Medicine (ICHO&JCTM2012) to be held in Kyoto, Japan from August 28 through August 31, 2012. Kyoto is the old capital of Japan and has many interesting places to visit. Besides all you should take this opportunity to feel the warm interest and friendliness of the Japanese people to their international guests.

As we remember from the previous ICHO meeting in Japan, our Japanese colleagues are highly gifted in organizing a meeting with an excellent scientific content together with a very interesting social program stimulating contacts between international colleagues and friends.

Please take into account the important data:
